THE CURRENT

June 18, 2015

Tutty's Crossing is officially open as the trailhead for the Jane Addams Trail. The Pecatonica Prairie Trail connection and other site improvements are to follow. A shelter and improvements at the boat launch are planned. The Pecatonica River, due to recent rains, has a river level of twelve feet. We have worked on the grade of the entrance drive and the oxbow features at Atten's Landing. The wet ground has brought work to a standstill.
